Mr. McAvoy,

Thank you for your message and for the letter detailing your concern about the October 18/19th Program in Insolvency being held at Osgoode Hall Law School.

I can assure you that the Insolvency Program is being put on purely for educational purposes. Lawyers and Judges often play a role in Osgoode's programs, but in this role, they are not engaged in advocacy, nor does Osgoode take any sides in this litigation. Further, my understanding is that the Judge you mention and the lawyers you mention are speaking on different days of the program and not as part of the same session.
